HEAD COACH JACK CLAYTON

ASST. COACH FRANK GRIFFIN

ASST. COACH TURNER ELROD

Coach Clayton is entering his second campaign tonight as head of football at Western. He is an exponent of the T-formation style of attack and immediately converted the Hilltoppers to the "T" when he took over two years ago.

His assistants are Turner Elrod and Frank Griffin. Both are Western graduates and played football for the Hilltoppers. Elrod was a star backfield man in the early '30's and was a well known high school coach throughout Kentucky before coming back to Western in the fall of 1948. Griffin played end in 1940 and '41. He came back to Western in 1946 after serving four years in the Navy.

Bowling Green Representatives On The 1949 Hilltoppers Squad

JOE TALLEY

On the left is Joe Talley, a 190-pound first string guard, who for the past two years has been a power in the Hilltopper line. This year the hard-hitting guard was touted for little All-American honors by a national magazine in a pre-season prediction. His performances in practice sessions since Sept. 1 when Coach Jack Clayton began preparations for the 1949 campaign have amply indicated that Talley will live up to all pre-season notices.

Talley graduated from Bowling Green High in the spring of 1947 and entered Western the following fall. In high school

BUTCH GILBERT

Joe was a star backfield man but his sterling, heads-up style of play and ability to break up power plays through the line made him a much more valuable man to the Hilltoppers as a guard.

On the right is Lawrence "Butch" Gilbert, another Bowling Green high product who played with Talley in high school. He came to Western along with Joe. Coach Clayton stated that Butch this season has shown more all around improvement than any other man on the squad. He is playing second string center to the veteran Nick Diachenko and has looked especially good in the practice sessions since the squad reported in for the 1949 campaign on Sept. 1. Gilbert weighs 195 pounds, stands five feet, eleven inches tall, and plays a fierce brand of football on both offense and defense.

A third Bowling Green high product to appear on the Western roster this season for the first time is freshman Nelson Rue. Nelson played first string center for the Purples last season and was a standout. Coach Clayton is expecting big things from this quiet, easy-going lad off the football field but a terror when he gets in the line at the center slot.

Doug Hensgen is a fourth Bowling Green High product on the squad. As a sophomore this season he has been looking good in the practice sessions.

Hilltoppers And Cards Meet For 16th Time Tonight

Tonight's ball game brings together two ancient rivals for their 16th meeting. Since the Hilltoppers and the Cardinals squared off for the first time back in 1922 Western has been victorious ten times and the University of Louisville forces five times.

In 1947 in Parkway Field at Louisville by a score of 19-13 the Cards scored their first triumph over Western since 1926 when the Hilltoppers fell before the Cards 26-10. Again in 1948 Parkway Field was the scene of another Card victory 19-6.

Over the years Western has outscored Louisville 261 points to 126. The first win in 1922 was a 6-0 triumph and in 1923 it was 19-7 for Western again. Then the Cards surged up to win the next three meetings 12-7, 6-0 and 26-10.

In 1927 Western was not to be denied as the Hilltoppers took on the Cardinals in the first Homecoming game ever played on the Hilltop at the dedication of the Western Stadium and began a string of victories which was to extend until 1947 by a 7-6 count.

Every year after that great Homecoming victory until 1933 the Hilltoppers battered the Cards scoring 20-0 in 1928, 30-0 in 1929, 7-6 in 1930 and 20-6 in 1931. The roof really fell in 1932 when Western crushed their ancient foe 58-0. It was the same story the following year by a 45-0 count. From then until 1946 when both teams revived football after the war Western and the University of Louisville did not meet again on the gridiron.

The victory skein was continued in 1946 when in the final minutes of the game in the Western Stadium Dan Ward faded back to toss a long looping pass to halfback Jimmy Phillips in the end zone to snatch a 20-19 win from the highly favored Cards. The hair-raising triumph was scored before 5,000 madly cheering fans who could hardly believe that the Hilltoppers had won.

Western's last minute triumph apparently infuriated the favored Cards because in the next two meetings at Parkway Field in their own backyard they have walloped the Hilltoppers.

Before 15,000 fans in 1947 with most of them cheering the Cards on to victory Western appeared to be on the way to another win. Jim Pickens tossed to Chet Lamham to put the Hilltoppers in front 6-0 in the first quarter after Ray Mills had jolted Joe Trabue loose from the ball and Jimmy Haynes had pounced on the Card fumble. The University eleven surged right back to knot the score in six plays, 6-6, as both teams failed to kick the extra point.

As the half was ending Kenny Arnold recovered another Card fumble and Pickens broke over his own left tackle behind perfect interference to score again. Jimmy Haynes' kick was good and Western led 13-6 as the period closed.

In the third quarter Louisville came back with a vengeance. It was Traube through the line or Frank Gitschier to Jack Coleman as the Cards rolled to the tying touchdown with Gitschier going over. In the dying moments Jewel Browning recovered another Card fumble but this time the Hilltoppers couldn't get it over. The Cards took command and rolled 88 yards in nine plays with Gitschier tossing to Coleman for the winning touchdown.

In 1948 the Hilltoppers were back in Parkway Field and were again the underdogs. It was the same story all over again as Jim Pickens tossed another touchdown pass in the first period but this time to big Frank Wallheiser who loped through the entire Card secondary to score. Western was out in front but couldn't hold back the rampaging Louisville eleven. At halftime the score was tied 6-6 as Gitschier again cut loose with a touchdown pass but this time to freshman Frank Ramsey midway the second period.

In the second half John Brewer and Trabue teamed up to punch over two more touchdowns and write another Cardinal victory into the books to the tune of a 19-6 score.

Tonight's game will bring together for the last time many of the members of both elevens who have tangled over the past three years. The Cards will be going all out to make it three in a row over Western for the first time since back in 1924, '25 and '26. The veteran Hilltoppers who have absorbed two lickings from this same group of Cards will be fighting equally hard to halt the Louisville victory march.
